Service of Worship

August 5, 2018 at 10:00 am

Welcome! Thank you for joining us today for worship.

This morning we celebrate the Eucharist (the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, or Holy Communion). We celebrate the Eucharist by intinction (dipping the bread into the cup). We also provide a gluten-free alternative, so that all may freely partake.

After receiving the elements you may come to the railing to receive a blessing from the pastors.

Centering Words

The first holy truth in God 101 is that men and women of true faith have always had to accept the mystery of God's identity and love and ways. I hate that, but it's the truth.

Greeting Our God with Joy

Call to Worship

Elder Dorothy Herd

Leader: Friends, we know what God desires of us:

All: That we do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with God.

Leader: We gather to give thanks for the gifts we've been given and the call to use them with joy.

All: We gather to share stories--the story of God's love for us and the ways we experience that love in the very fabric of our daily lives.

Leader: We gather this morning to encourage one another.

All: We gather for renewal and strength to carry God's love into the world. Let us worship God!

Renewing Our Relationship with God

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, forgive us when we stubbornly cling to our own limited perceptions and beliefs. In our fear we too often try to make you into something we can control and manipulate. Grant us courage to delight in the mystery of who you are. Open our minds and hearts to the movement of your Spirit so we can boldly witness to your life-giving love and power. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Lessons

1 Timothy 2: 11-15

Let a woman learn in silence with full submission. I permit no woman to teach or to have authority over a man; she is to keep silent. For Adam was formed first, then Eve; and Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived and became a transgressor. Yet she will be saved through childbearing, provided they continue in faith and love and holiness, with modesty.

2 Corinthians 3: 4-6

Such is the confidence that we have through Christ toward God. Not that we are competent of ourselves to claim anything as coming from us; our competence is from God, who has made us competent to be ministers of a new covenant, not of letter but of spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

After the readings

Leader: Hear what the Holy Spirit is telling God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

Boulevard Elementary School Supply Drive!

It's that time of year again, when stores are brimming with pencils, notebooks, and glue to help kids get ready to go back to school! FHC has a partnership with Boulevard Elementary (on Lee Rd. in Cleveland Heights), and one of our efforts is to provide school supplies to help every child be prepared for a great year of learning.

We are collecting spiral one-subject notebooks; two-pocket folders; crayons (8 or 12 count boxes); fat or skinny markers; highlighters; loose-leaf lined paper; glue sticks; pencils; rulers; pencil boxes; sharpeners; large pink erasers; dry erase markers; post-it notes. Please bring donations to church and put them in the marked box on the stage.

New this year: Karen Allen, the social worker at Boulevard, notes a special need: some children need items (a pair of shoes, hair supplies, or other personal essentials) in addition to school supplies to start the year. You may donate a gift card to Target or Walmart ($10 - $20) for such use. Place these gift cards in the Justice and Mission mailbox or in the offering plate, clearly marked "Boulevard."

All donations should be received no later than Sunday, August 19. Questions? Call Jessica Kelley at 410-562-1797.

Adult Bible Study, Fall 2018

Kerygma: The Gospel of Matthew: God With Us

Registration begins August 12

According to Matthew, the Christian community is an earthly manifestation of the rule of God. It is composed of followers of Jesus who have been called to live righteously in the world and to serve in the manner of Jesus, with humility and forgiveness. In Jesus, there is a new community at work for the blessing of the world. What is it that binds us together? Jesus – God with Us.

The Gospel of Matthew: God with Us adult study program will meet for 12 consecutive Sundays, beginning September 9, at 9:30 am. Three groups, led by co-facilitators Kathryn Eloff and Tom Zych, Pat Jenkins and Laury Larson, and Ron Register and Ahren Stock, are planned. Pat Seeders will start registration on August 12 in South Hall after worship. A resource book, recommended for each participant, is available for $24.

A long-standing resource for Forest Hill Church's adult education ministry, the Kerygma program of Bible study utilizes scholarly but approachable study resources that actively engage participants in learning about the Bible in lively and interactive group sessions. Study group facilitators are not teachers so much as learners among learners.

We are looking forward to a new and exciting fall semester for Adult Ed with new classes and new facilitators. We will use the Gospel to examine how we think of God, of the life and mission of Jesus, and how people of faith respond to God's presence in our lives.

In addition to the Kerygma classes, Pastor John Lentz will begin a "Christianity 101: Living the Questions" class on September 9 at 9:30 am

– all the questions you have had but never asked! This class is for especially designed for "Seekers" and those who are exploring Christianity. It is a class option for those who cannot commit to weekly attendance; each class will have its own unique subject matter.

Did you know?

The word "kerygma" comes from the Greek word for "preaching."

The Merriam-Webster Dictionary defines it as

"the apostolic proclamation of salvation through Jesus Christ."
