To the Members and Friends of Forest Hill Church,

It’s hard to believe that two and one half months have passed since I arrived at Forest Hill Church, on January 2. I’m convinced that the reason the past 11 weeks have flown by so fast is that Forest Hill Church is all the way live. I am heartened by the energy, enthusiasm, and commitment of our congregation to the mission of Christ’s Church.

I acknowledge and thank the Black History Education Committee for the diverse and prodigal offerings of cultural expression through art, history, music, dance, and spoken word. This year’s program was a feast for our eyes and balm for our souls—it too was all the way live!

And, just as we’ve been uplifted by such gifts, we’ve experienced opportunities to deepen in faith through the spiritual nurture ministries of FHC—our Worship, Family, Youth, and Children’s ministries and Adult Education program. In this Lenten season, I am happy to lead a course for the Sunday morning Adult Education program.

Lent is a season that calls us to spiritual introspection, interior preparation, and anticipation of the death burial and resurrection of our Lord Jesus the Christ. For this reason, I take this opportunity to invite members and friends to a four-week course, “Engaging the Spiritual Practices.” In this practicum, I will teach basic principles of the spiritual disciplines, introduce a new practice each week, and lead the class in communal practices to encourage ever-deepening relationship with God in Christ. The practices aren’t the ultimate goal. Rather, they serve as mediums through which we experience communion with God.

While the classes are related, each stands alone. Therefore, it is fine to join in at any point. Also, depending on the interest expressed by adult members, I may repeat or extend the course to include additional practices and participants. I invite your feedback.

So, join me Sunday mornings from 9:30-10:30 a.m. in the Chapel. See the bulletin for a description of the class. No need to prepare—just show up. See you there!

Grace and Peace,
Pastor Veronica R. Goines

Music Notes

You may have noticed that we sing a lot of music by John Bell. Well, he is coming to Forest Hill Church for what he calls a Big Sing—a fun evening of informal singing, kind of in the style of Bobby McFerrin, but with church music. John Bell is a well-known Scottish composer, ordained pastor, author, and workshop leader. I have had the pleasure of working with him at three conferences (Montreat and Westminster), and I also attended the Hymn Society conference in Columbus, OH where he was the featured speaker. You will find him a totally engaging speaker and inspiring music leader. And he may be barefoot (he was the first time I encountered him)! Please come on Monday, April 8th at 7 PM to experience John Bell in person (all the way from Glasgow, Scotland).

I look forward to leading the music at upcoming Lenten and Easter services: Palm Sunday (4/14), Maundy Thursday (4/18 service at 7:30 PM), the Easter Vigil (4/20 service at 7:30 PM) and our glorious Easter services (April 21 services at 9:00 AM in the Chapel and 11:00 AM in the sanctuary).

There are many moments during Holy Week that I find particularly moving. Palm Sunday: the children waving their palms and singing Hosanna, and the carrying of the heavy, wooden cross, accompanied by the singing of Ubi caritas; Maundy Thursday: the gradual extinguishing of the lights and candles, and the drama of the last reading when the sanctuary is plunged into darkness amid the stark beating of the drum; Easter Vigil: the solemn procession from the outdoor fire pit into the darkened sanctuary. Easter: the throng of singers gathered at the front of the sanctuary to joyfully sing the Hallelujah Chorus. Please join us during Holy Week as we reenact, relive, and participate in the passion of Jesus Christ.

Small Groups

Coming soon: Small group sign-ups! If you are interested in joining a small group, watch for the bulletin board with a map of group locations and more details. Small groups will start after Easter, occurring at various times during the week, and providing an opportunity to grow in faith with fellow FHC members and friends. Requested commitment: six meetings with your small group. Further details will be provided in the bulletin/email announcements in early April.

From the Deacons Desk

The Deacons extend warm hopes for all to feel the approach of Easter and spring, without ignoring the opportunity to find meaning in the season of Lent.

During our March meeting, we shared among ourselves the following prayer, which may also be a useful addition to your Lenten prayer life:

I Will Lean In
I will lean in, retreat from the pressures I face, and move closer and deeper into your love.
I will breathe out, refrain from the distractions I seek, and become open and receiving of your grace.
I will linger, encircled by the depth of your care, and receive the endless nature of your mercy.
I will whisper, in the quiet of this sanctuary, and be honest and real in your presence.
I will listen, awaken all my senses to your voice, and become expectant and hopeful of your kingdom work in my life. ~author unknown

Because of our belief in the power of prayer, Forest Hill has a small, caring, faithful team – “Prayer Warriors” – who devote themselves to intercessory prayer on behalf of our congregation and our world. Deacon Rob Reynolds leads this group and invites any church member, visitor, or friend to submit prayer requests for ourselves or for others. Your prayer requests are confidential (only shared with those few who have committed themselves to praying). To submit a prayer request, please email Rob at: rdtaylor@gmail.com. Even when we cannot believe or have lost the words for prayer, others can walk beside us with belief, language, and faith for us. Please utilize this loving ministry and be surrounded by the comfort and power of others’ prayers.

New Things at Forest Hill Church

As part of the 2019 Stewardship Campaign, the Stewardship Committee passed out note cards before the November 2018 church service asking what they saw Forest Hills Church doing as a “New Thing” (Isaiah 43:19). Following are some common themes that were mentioned: New Pastor/Co-Pastor, New Youth Director, children involved in worship and engaged, youth growing up to do amazing work, youth participating in Communion, more volunteers getting involved with children and youth, PRISM, Immigration justice/activism, New Spirit, consistent and persistent invitation to participate in the work of building the Kingdom, new adult classes, and we expect to (and will) raise more money in pledges than before.
If you’d like to view all of the responses, please email one of the Stewardship elders:

Leslie Pendleton at lrpendleton@yahoo.com
Mark Gerteis at markgerteis@gmail.com
Consuelo Heineman at cheineman@intellicorp.net

Thank you to all who participated!

---As Spring approaches, don’t forget to put out and keep bird feeders filled to allow our feathered friends good nourishment for their birthing season!
---Minimize using plastic bags at retail stores----purchase re-usable sturdy bags instead.
---If you must bring home the flimsy plastic bags, collect them and then take them in to a plastic bag recycling collection point.
---As you prepare your lawn and garden for the growing season, use fertilizer, pesticides, and other chemical additives sparingly if not at all!
--Update your plants, flowers, and cultivated areas to be eco-friendly for butterflies, bees, and birds.
---With Spring comes rains….be sure to provide appropriate water collection areas, rain barrels, and prevent unnecessary run-off, to conserve water..
---On warm Spring days, don’t forget to turn down or turn off your house thermostat from its winter weather settings.
---Use eco-friendly cleaning products on your windows, outdoor furniture, porches and patios.
--Many communities offer a one-day used paint, oils, and other organic compound containers recycling during the Spring. Be sure to take advantage of such disposal opportunities in your community.
---Save the Date---Saturday May 4, for a Wetern Reserve Presbytery-wide Earh Stewardship event at Fairmount Presbyterian Church. Details in the May Tower.

GCC (Greater Cleveland Congregations) Update

The Forest Hill GCC Core Team would like to improve our communication with the congregation on the work of GCC. Greater Cleveland Congregations is a faith-based change agent that builds power for social justice in Cuyahoga County by uniting people across lines of race, class, religion and neighborhoods.

Currently, GCC is in the midst of an 18-month “strengthening” campaign to increase the number of active congregations and improve the strength of our member congregations through training and development of Core Teams in each congregation, as well as building relationships with individual members of our congregations. While we are strengthening the organization, GCC has continued to pursue efforts to hold our local Cuyahoga County Court system accountable for greater equity in criminal justice matters and to advocate for reduced incarceration through creation of mental health crisis centers. Other actions have included the Do-Not-Stand-Idly-By gun violence campaign and the Heights Housing Team, spearheaded by FHC GCC members.

Highlights from a recent GCC Criminal Justice Team meeting included:
- GCC members attended Judge Matia’s Drug Court and Judge Russo’s Arraignment Court to observe the justice process
- GCC continues to work with Administrative Judge Russo and Prosecutor O’Malley and recently obtained commitments to expand the Drug Court docket to attain greater racial equity in diversionary programs offered to those facing lower level drug offenses
- Discussion of the “second chance docket” to allow eligible defendants to have low-level felonies expunged from their records
- Presentations from GCC members about the urgent need for mental health issues to be addressed through professional treatment instead of through the criminal justice system and the courts. GCC continues to push the Court and Prosecutor’s office to support creation of mental health and addiction crisis centers in Cuyahoga County as a resource to direct people facing mental health and addiction issues instead of County jail. Jails have become the largest defacto provider of mental health services

Check out the website www.fhcpresb.org Come and see!
• GOOD NEWS: GCC through its Criminal Justice Team has been a key player in helping to initiate a coalition that will create a roundtable of key stakeholders to seek best solutions to the mental health needs of people in the criminal justice system. The coalition includes County judges, the Prosecutor’s office, and has the support of the Gund Foundation. Mental Health and Addiction Crisis Centers will be one of the primary solutions considered.

Ministry of Justice and Mission

Funding opportunities from the Ministry of Justice and Mission
It's grant season! The birds are returning and daffodils sprouting. J&M community grants and endowment fund requisition time is here as well. See this important information below.

Endowment Fund:
Each year, Session earmarks at least 25% of the Endowment Fund to Justice and Mission related efforts. This amounts to over $15,000 this year. J&M Ministry will determine which requests and the amount to present to Session who makes the final recommendation for funding to the Endowment Committee.

Endowment Funds may be allocated for initial or seed funding for activities and programs that meet the mission of FHC. It is not to be the primary source of funds for on-going programs or projects, but can be used to build capacity in existing efforts or for “unique opportunities”. Previous recipients include: Camp Lilac, PRISM training, a printer for GCC.

Groups or individuals may contact J&M Elders to discuss the project. An application is available online and copies are in the mail room and must be submitted by April 8th.
Community Grants:
These are open to ministries and groups within the church, as well as organizations outside of the FHC. The purpose of Community Grants is to support equity, justice or charitable work in our congregation, the community, and internationally. The grant can provide operating funds for ongoing programs or seed funds for new initiatives. Priority will be given to groups that have a connection to our congregation, that do not have many other sources of funding, that meet local needs and provide community/self-development. Non-profit organizations can apply, but the Community Grant application has been revised to be more accessible for individuals or small groups. Previous recipients include: HOLA, Abundance Pantry, Cleveland Co-Op (economic development).

Applications are available electronically from FHC Office and the J&M Elders. These may be submitted now through May 6th. J&M has a total of $29,474 to distribute over the year.

Small Requests: Throughout the year, groups or individuals can request support for specific peace, justice and mission related events or opportunities. Examples include: lunch for a GCC event after church; supporting a fundraiser for the Ron Register Scholarship Fund.

Send a request by email to the Elders, who will bring it to the ministry for consideration.

Lenten Dinners 2019: The Privilege Fast

Justice and Mission has organized a Privilege Fast and Lenten Dinners this year. There are two dinners remaining accompanying learning opportunities designed to draw us closer to God and wrestle with what it means to ‘fast’ in a modern day, social justice context.

Our first dinner was held on Ash Wednesday. During the light dinner created by Morag, we had the chance to develop a new understanding of the privilege we hold. We were asked various questions about such attributes as our education and economic background, our ethnic and racial heritage, and even our physical attributes. We then added or gave up a bean according to whether or not we held that privilege or challenge. Many of us were surprised at how we ranked compared to others present. It wasn’t a surprise, though, that 3 white males had accumulated the most beans. Out of the more than 50 participants, the range of results within our congregation was 0 beans to 24 beans at the end of the activity.

The concept of the Privilege Fast is to look at our privileges and find ways to use them to help others who don’t have so many. We each, whether having attended the dinner or not, are encouraged to set aside coins for each privilege we hold (see the One Great Hour of Sharing bifold available at church or noted in the weekly email). Or we may tutor or mentor someone in the community, give someone a ride or take the bus, eat on a food stamp budget, volunteer for Labre or the Abundance Pantry, etc. Look at the trifold board in fellowship hall for more ideas and information.

Still to come, open to all whether you attended Ash Wednesday or not:
April 3, Dinner and Activity: Teach the group about the activity you chose, why you chose it, and how it’s going for you

April 12, Lenten Fish Fry. An Intergenerational Outing to Sts. Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Cathedral, Cleveland Heights

April 28 Adult Education*/ wrap up discussion
- How did the ‘Privilege Fast’ go for you?
- How did this draw you closer to God?
- Would you do this again or recommend it to others?

From the Web
Good news for those missing the photo directory that used to be on our website...a new online directory is coming soon through the church’s Breeze database. Watch for details!

Did you know that…
- Upcoming church events are listed and described at the bottom of the Home Page?
- You can read current and past issues of The Tower on our website?
- Past and current worship bulletins appear as well?
- You can listen to recordings of entire worship services online?

The Lord’s Supper
An examination of practice of Communion in PC (USA) churches explains the meaning and nature of participation in the Lord’s Supper. It is the “sign and seal” of our communion with the crucified and risen Christ. “It is God’s sustaining grace offered as a privilege given to all those who come in faith.

Officiating, serving and receiving Holy Communion deepens one’s personal faith as well as strengthens the bonds of the community of faith. When you are invited to come to the table at Forest Hill, you will receive Communion by Instinction: dipping the bread into wine. We offer three ways to receive the elements of blessed bread and wine: Plain bread and wine at three stations, gluten free bread and wine at one station. Recently we have added the choice of a sealed container with both bread and wine, (not gluten free) from the gluten free station. This is to accommodate those who have concerns with possible exposure to or contribution of pathogens. Whatever your choice, come to the table to be fed in the Spirit.

Upcoming event with the Pacesetters

Free Concert for the Pacesetters on March 29 at 8:00 pm at Kulas Hall located at the Cleveland Institute of Music (11021 East Blvd. Cleveland, Oh 44106). Margaret Brouwer's orchestral piece "Remembrances" will be first on the program.

Dear Pacesetters,

Have you ever wondered where the Shakers and Makers of Cleveland decided to spend their years in their afterlife?

- African American Trail Blazer Charles B. Stokes, First African American Mayor of a major U.S. city, Cleveland, Ohio
- African American Trail Blazer Zelma George, well-known African-American philanthropist who was famous for being an alternate in the United Nations General Assembly and, as a headliner in Gian-Carlo Menotti’s opera The Medium, the first African American to play a role that was typically played by a white actress.
- Charles Brush, inventor of the light bulb
- African American trail blazer Garrett Morgan, Inventor, including the tri-color traffic light and a gas mask
- Almeda Adams, who overcame sightlessness to help found the Cleveland Music School Settlement and achieved a long career as a teacher, author, and lecturer
- Eliot Ness, Public Safety Director for Cleveland, 1935-1942, known for helping bring down Al Capone in Chicago.

Have you ever seen a chapel made of Tiffany Glass from floor to ceiling? Did you know that one of the largest concrete poured dams west of the Mississippi runs through Lake View Cemetery? Did you know the original arboretum of Cleveland was Lake View Cemetery? Did you know 25 mayors of Cleveland are buried at Lake View Cemetery?
