Dear Friends,

In church and society, we are beset with disagreements. Issues of politics and faith divide us. Neighbors are wary of each other. Even in our own church family there are areas of tension.

The Presbyterian Peacemaking Program has published Seeking to Be Faithful Together: Guidelines for Presbyterians in Times of Disagreement, as part of the Matthew 25 initiative of which Forest Hill Church is a part.

The guidelines are shaped by scripture: “Give them a hearing...listen before we answer” (John 7:51 and Proverbs 18:13); “Speak the truth in love” (Ephesians 4:15); “Maintain the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace” (Ephesians 4:3).

This helpbul guide suggests 10 steps to follow:

1. Treat each other respectfully so as to build trust, believing that we all desire to be faithful to Jesus the Christ.
2. Learn about various positions on the topic of disagreement, in an effort to be sure we understand each other.
3. State what we think we heard and ask for clarification before responding.
4. Share our concerns directly with individuals or groups with whom we have disagreements in a spirit of love and respect in keeping with Jesus’ teachings.
5. Focus on ideas and suggestions instead of questioning people’s motives, intelligence, or integrity.
6. Share our personal experiences about the subject of disagreement so that others may more fully understand our concerns.
7. Indicate where we agree with those of other viewpoints as well as where we disagree.
8. Seek to stay in community with each other, though the discussion may be vigorous and full of tension.
9. Urge people of various points of view to speak, and promise to listen to these positions seriously; seek conclusions informed by our points of agreement; be sensitive to the feeling and concerns of those who do not agree with the majority and respect their rights of conscience.
10. Include our disagreement in our prayers, not praying for the triumph of our viewpoints, but seeking God’s grace to listen attentively, to speak clearly and to remain open to the vision God holds for us all.

In the days ahead practice these faithful guidelines and be at peace! We are all beloved children of God.

Faithfully yours,

John

Fall Adult Spiritual Growth Classes Announced

With autumn just around the corner, the Forest Hill Ministry of Adult Spiritual Growth offers an intriguing mix of colorful and rewarding classes and group get-togethers worth investigating.

Discussion topics include

- Ways to more easily follow Jesus’ teachings and deal with life’s negative forces
- Discovering pre-Christian scriptures included in the Book of Wisdom
- How praying with others helps us meet life’s daily and toughest challenges
- Probing the Parables Jesus told to help listeners better understand his messages
- Practicing ways to address racial equity in our daily lives

While most classes include the use of a book or text, i.e., the Follow Me series, others will focus on one-to-one relationships and group gatherings. Most classes “meet” (via Zoom and/or in person) Sunday mornings at 9:15am; others meet Saturday mornings or another day and time.

For more information about this fall’s offerings, go to the church’s website at fhcpresb.org and look for the complete list of adult classes. Lists will also be mailed and made available at the church.
Earth Care
Again in Focus

—Dave Neff

It is time to reconsider the business of Earth Care after an unplanned hiatus....
Recall the four “R’s”:

Refuse
Reduce
Re-use
Recycle

We’re all familiar with these simple, personal actions we can take to better protect our environment. We’re much more aware now of disastrous consequences of climate change, and, hopefully, we understand that carbon emission from a variety of human activities affects the environmental health of God’s planet earth.

Yet, here we are in modern urban life where we travel in emission-emitting vehicles for work and pleasure, with our automobiles, boats, and planes. In many instances, we light, heat, and cool our homes with technologies that are fueled by carbon-emitting energy sources.

So, how can each of us balance our carbon emission-generating lifestyle more prudently, reduce our own personal carbon footprint, and reduce the effects of climate change which will improve the environment?

One way is to consider the purchase of carbon footprint “offsets.” Basically, carbon offsetting is any reduction of greenhouse gas emissions to make up for emissions that occur elsewhere. Carbon offset credits show that an organization or person has reduced its/their emissions. The term “carbon offset” is used to describe both the credit and the act of carbon offsetting.

In this way we offset the carbon emissions that we are in one way or another responsible for. Monies used to purchase personal credit “offsets” are used to plant trees, upgrade water sources and supplies, establish more sustainable agricultural methods, and more.

One such source for further information on purchasing carbon offsets credits to balance our lifestyle is found in the website www.terrapass.com. I have just started to explore this and other related carbon-offset internet addresses. Join me in examining these. They are worth a thoughtful look and consideration.

We Americans have a moral obligation to the rest of the world to significantly reduce our own carbon footprint — especially to the people who are not as fortunate as we. Racial Equity Buddies
An Essential Strategy for Personal Racial Equity Growth
—Quentin Smith

In 2019, Dr. Mark Joseph provided Forest Hill Church with guidance in establishing a racial equity buddies program. The suggestions he provided then are just as important for us today in working on our personal equity growth. It’s important to know that a “racial equity buddy” is a trusted companion — someone who, like you, is interested in becoming more aware of ways to create racial equity.

Some of Dr. Joseph’s tips:

▪ Find someone who is on his/her own racial equity journey. He or she does not have to be of the same, or different racial/ethnic background. Try to select someone who is a good listener, a lifelong learner with high integrity and discretion, and a willingness to change their opinions.

▪ Focus on building trust and a safe space to be honest with each other. The way you and your buddy connect can and should work for you both (reading books, taking walks together, meeting for coffee, discussing films, etc.).

▪ Be vigilant during your conversations: share, but don’t lecture; listen with empathy not skepticism; be curious not challenging.

▪ Be flexible and accommodating; like all journeys, yours may take unexpected twists and turns.

▪ Savor the journey. Don’t rush, keep steady momentum, have fun even as you delve into painful and difficult topics.

BATTLE FOR DEMOCRACY

GCC continues to actively recruit up to 150 neighborhood captains to lead GCC’s expanded and re-imagined voter canvassing work. This year Forest Hill is leading a team of Neighborhood Captains of FHC members and members from other Heights churches in this critical work to re-engage infrequent and depressed voters in the Noble Neighborhood of Cleveland Heights, just contiguous to our church. We still need additional volunteers to join our team. If you are interested, please contact Diana Woodbridge at diana@ninthrung.com or Scott Lafferty at swlaff@sbcglobal.net.

In an environment where our democratic fabric is eroding and voters are sinking further into depression, the neighborhood captain strategy is the backbone of our campaign and essential to re-engaging voters. According to our partner, the Union of Concerned Scientists, our 2021 neighborhood captain program had a 2% increase in turnout of our targeted voters compared to 2020. In addition to engaging with the Noble neighborhood in Cleveland Heights, the larger campaign will again engage with the five key neighborhoods we engaged in 2021 for the Cleveland Mayoral campaign and four other inner-ring suburban neighborhoods where GCC has member organizations: South Euclid, Euclid, Parma Heights and Warrensville Heights. WE NEED YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS! We will have an organizational and planning meeting for our Noble neighborhood Neighborhood Captains team on Tuesday, September 6, at 7 p.m. in South Hall.

SAVE THE DATE

1) The Criminal Justice team of GCC will conduct an important action to bring attention to the ongoing problem of Cuyahoga County’s excessive use of discretionary bindovers of youth to adult courts. The event takes place at Olivet Institutional Baptist Church, 8712 Quincy Ave on Thursday, October 13 at 7 p.m.

2) GCC’s Executive Director and Lead Organizer, Keisha Krumm, will preach at Forest Hill Church on Sunday, October 16, and following worship that day, will conduct a learning session about GCC, faith-based organizing and the current initiatives of GCC.

Please join us for these important events in support of our commitment to GCC. Thank you.

PER CAPITA = PER MEMBER

Each year, Forest Hill Church contributes to the greater Presbyterian Church through its annual per-capita assessment. Per-capita is an opportunity for all Presbyterians to share in the organizational costs of the larger church. It is a set amount of money per member that is paid to the Presbytery of the Western Reserve, the Synod of the Covenant, and the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (USA). Per-capita covers the ecclesiastical expenses of the denomination and makes it possible for the following:

- Presbyterians to discern and live out God’s call in their lives
- Churches to connect with individuals seeking a call to ministry
- Staff support for General Assembly committees and commissions
- Management and coordination of General Assembly gatherings
- Presbytery and synod leaders to gather for training and discernment
- Counsel and support for churches in crisis (misconduct, legal matters)
- Presbyteries to address matters of inclusion, participation, and representation at all levels of church leadership and decision-making
- The denomination to build connections with ecumenical partners around the world
- Presbyteries and pastors to receive support on immigration issues
- Presbyterian history to be cataloged, preserved, and utilized by future generations

The apportionment for this year is based upon the membership of Forest Hill Church reported as of December 31, 2020, which was 382 active members. The 2022 per-capita is $34.91 broken out as follows: General Assembly $8.95; Synod of the Covenant $3.25; and Presbytery of the Western Reserve $22.71. The total FHC contributed in 2022 is $13,336.

Session includes the total amount of our per-capita contribution in the annual expense budget. We ask that you prayerfully consider contributing the per-capita amount for your family members in addition to your pledge and other gifts. By contributing your portion of per-capita now, you free up dollars in our regular budget for the work of Forest Hill Church in our local community. If you pay by check, please note “Per-Capita” on the memo line. You may also contribute through our online giving option. Thank you for your support.

Everyday stewardship from your Stewardship Ministry

We hope you enjoyed our summer video series. The videos are such a great way to meet members, hear their testimonials and learn about the many programs and ministries of Forest Hill Church.

Next month our 2023 Stewardship Campaign officially begins. You’ll be introduced to more new videos and some may even have a touch of humor!

Below is the new logo which will be used in the 2023 Campaign. Our theme, With God, We Are Limitless, is based on Psalm 1:3: [We] are like trees planted by streams of water, which yield their fruit in its season and their leaves do not wither. In all that they do, they prosper. (NRSV)

The Stewardship Ministry is exceedingly grateful for your continued generosity and support of Forest Hill Church.

Programming for Family, Youth & Children

―Amy Wheetley, Director of Family, Youth & Children

Fall programming for families, youth and children will bring new opportunities for:

• Worship participation
• Music
• Intergenerational gatherings
• Service

Blessing of the Backpacks

Children and youth are invited to bring their backpacks to church on Sunday, September 11 for a “blessing of the backpacks.” During the 11am worship service, the congregation will offer a blessing to all of our young people who are beginning a new school year!

Forty families were surprised and delighted to find yard signs that had been “planted” in their lawns during the first week of school. Whether starting preschool or kindergarten; returning to elementary school; moving up to middle school; or finishing high school, children and youth were reminded that their church family is thinking of them and wishing them well as a new academic year begins.

STAY TUNED FOR A CALENDAR OF PROGRAM EVENTS COMING SOON!
The Peace & Global Witness Offering enables the church to promote the peace of Christ by addressing systems of injustice in our own communities and around the world. Together we are building God’s household of peace where everyone is welcome – where all can find compassion, peace and justice.

Many congregations receive this offering throughout A Season of Peace — beginning on September 4, and culminating on World Communion Sunday, October 2.

THE FOREST HILL CHURCH MUSIC MINISTRY. . .

believes that musical gifts from God are to be celebrated in a joyful and compassionate community. This season will see a variety of musical gifts in our worship services, from classical hymns and choral selections to gospel pieces, from jazz to Taizé musical meditations. Please contact Ying at music@fhcpresb.org if you are interested in joining any of the musical ensembles or if you would like to offer your musical talent in worship.
